75th Postmaster General Announced

On May 6, 2020, the Board of Governors of the United States Postal Service (USPS) announced its unanimous selection of Louis DeJoy to serve as the 75th Postmaster General of the United States and Chief Executive Officer of the world's largest postal organization, effective June 15, 2020. Mr. DeJoy is a business executive with over 35 years of experience in supply chain logistics, program management and transportation support.

The National Association of Postal Supervisors (NAPS) congratulates Mr. DeJoy in becoming the 75th Postmaster General of the United States. NAPS looks forward to building a positive business relationship with future Postmaster General DeJoy and his leadership team, understanding Mr. DeJoy's vision for the Postal Service, and working together to ensure the success of the USPS.

NAPS thanks current Postmaster General Megan Brennan for her years of leadership and wishes her all the best in her Postal Service retirement.
