USPS vehicle announcement to take place at HQ Employees are encouraged to attend

USPS and White House officials will make a significant announcement about the Postal Service vehicle fleet today.

The event will take place at 1 p.m. outside of the lobby entrance of the Postal Service's L'Enfant Plaza headquarters, where there will be new USPS vehicles on display.

In addition to Postmaster General Louis DeJoy, the announcement will include remarks from John Podesta, Senior Advisor to the President for Clean Energy Innovation and Implementation; Brenda Mallory, Chair, White House Council on Environmental Quality; and Ali Zaidi, Assistant to the President and National Climate Advisor.

All L'Enfant headquarters employees are invited to attend the announcement, provided they have approval from their supervisor.

Attendees are reminded to dress appropriately for the weather, as the event will be outside. Those who can attend will be provided with holiday cookies to mark the occasion, after the event.
