

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF POSTAL SUPERVISORS

National Headquarters
1727 KING STREET, SUITE 400
ALEXANDRIA, VA 22314-2753
(703) 836-9660

October 20, 2023

Board Memo 130-2023: Additional Mail Processing Facility Reviews and Service Talk Notices

Executive Board,

NAPS has received information from USPS regarding Mail Processing Facility Reviews conducted at five locations. Attached are service talk notices that will be provided to the employees at the five facilities mentioned below.

- Trenton, NJ P&DC into Philadelphia P&DC
- Provo, UT P&DC into Salt Lake City Auxiliary Service Facility
- Greenville, SC P&DC into Charlotte LPC and Charlotte RPDC
- South Suburban (Chicago), IL P&DC into Chicago South RPDC
- Minneapolis, MN P&DC into St. Paul, MN P&DC

Please share this information with your membership.

Thank you, and be safe.

NAPS Headquarters

LABOR RELATIONS

RECEIVED

OCT 20 2023

October 17, 2023

Mr. Ivan Butts
President
National Association of Postal Supervisors
1727 King Street, Suite 400
Alexandria, VA 22314-2753

Certified Mail Number
9589 0710 5270 0684 7726 65

Dear Ivan:

This is in further reference to the Postal Service's September 27 correspondence announcing its intent to conduct Mail Processing Facility Reviews (MPFR) at five locations. These reviews were conducted at the following locations:

- Trenton, NJ Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) into Philadelphia P&DC
- Provo, UT P&DC into Salt Lake City Auxiliary Service Facility (ASF)
- Greenville, SC P&DC into Charlotte Local Processing Center (LPC) and Charlotte Regional Processing and Distribution Center (RPDC)
- South Suburban (Chicago), IL P&DC into Chicago South RPDC
- Minneapolis, MN P&DC into St. Paul, MN P&DC

The initial results of all five facility reviews support the business case for keeping each facility open and modernized as a Local Processing Center. The next step is to provide notice of a public meeting to the public. Enclosed are the following communication materials that are intended to be communicated today for each of the five locations:

- Stand Up Talks (SUT) to employees
- Notices of Public Meetings
- Press Releases

Please contact Paulita Wimbush at ext. 4042 if you have questions regarding the matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "B. Nicholson", written over the word "Sincerely,".

Bruce A. Nicholson
Director
Labor Relations Policies and Programs

Enclosures

Mail Processing Facility Review
Notice of Public Input Meeting
Provo P&DC to Salt Lake City ASF

October 17, 2023

As part of its 10-year strategic Delivering for America plan to modernize the nation's aging postal network, the U.S. Postal Service initiated a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Provo Processing and Distribution Center to the Salt Lake City Auxiliary Service Facility (ASF). Results from the initial review support the business case. However, this MPFR, currently in review at Postal Service headquarters and its regional office, is subject to change.

A public meeting will be held to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision. The meeting will be held on Thursday, November 2 at 1:00 PM at the Provo City Library at Academy Square, 550 N University Ave, Ballroom & Brimhall Room 302, Provo UT 84606. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting.

Below are some preliminary highlights from the study:

Business Case

The Postal Service is investing heavily in operations in Utah as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and to achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery across all mail products.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Provo Processing and Distribution Center open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC) with simplified processes and standardized layouts. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Salt Lake City ASF.

Future of Facility

The Provo Processing and Distribution Center will remain open and will be modernized. It will be repositioned as a Local Processing Center for destinating mail processing.

Local Customers

- Retail and other services currently available at the Provo Processing and Distribution Center will not change.
- Business mail acceptance will remain the same.
- A local postmark will continue to be available at retail post offices.
- Delivery times of mail to residences and businesses should not change because of this review.

Commercial Mailers

- Mailers who presort mail will continue to receive appropriate postage discounts.
- Mailers who drop ship to Destination Sectional Center Facility (DSCF) can expect no changes if the MPFR is approved.

Please go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-provo-ut> to submit written comments. All written comments must be received by Nov. 17, 2023.

Mail Processing Facility Review Notice of Public Input Meeting

Greenville P&DC to Charlotte RPDC

Oct. 17, 2023

As part of its 10-year strategic Delivering for America plan to modernize the nation's aging postal network, the U.S. Postal Service initiated a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Greenville Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) to the new Charlotte RPDC. Results from the initial review support the business case. However, this MPFR, currently in review at Postal Service headquarters and its regional office, is subject to change.

A public meeting will be held to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 1 at 2:00 PM at the Hughes Main Library, 25 Heritage Green Place, Rooms B & C, Greenville SC 29601. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com on at least one week prior to the public input meeting.

Below are some preliminary highlights from the study:

Business Case

The Postal Service is investing heavily in operations in the Carolinas as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and to achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery across all mail products.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Greenville Processing and Distribution Center open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC) with simplified processes and standardized layouts. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Charlotte RPDC.

Future of Facility

The Greenville Processing and Distribution Center will remain open and will be modernized. It will be repositioned as a Local Processing Center for destinating mail processing.

Local Customers

- Retail and other services currently available at the Greenville Processing and Distribution Center will not change.
- Business mail acceptance will remain the same.
- A local postmark will continue to be available at retail post offices.
- Delivery times of mail to residence and businesses should not change because of this review.

Commercial Mailers

- Mailers who presort mail will continue to receive appropriate postage discounts.
- Mailers who drop ship to Destination Sectional Center Facility (DSCF) can expect no changes if the MPFR is approved.

Please go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-greenville-sc> to submit written comments. All written comments must be received by Nov. 16, 2023.

Mail Processing Facility Review
Notice of Public Input Meeting
Minneapolis P&DC to St. Paul P&DC

Oct. 17, 2023

As part of its 10-year strategic Delivering for America plan to modernize the nation's aging postal network, the U.S. Postal Service initiated a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Minneapolis Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) to the St. Paul P&DC. Results from the initial review support the business case. However, this MPFR, currently in review at Postal Service headquarters and its regional office, is subject to change.

A public meeting will be held to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision. The meeting will be held on Thursday, November 1 at 2:00 PM at the Shoreview Community Center, 4580 Victoria St N, Room B, Shoreview MN 55126. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com on at least one week prior to the public input meeting.

Below are some preliminary highlights from the study:

Business Case

The Postal Service is investing heavily in operations in Minnesota as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and to achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery across all mail products.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Minneapolis Processing and Distribution Center open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center with simplified processes and standardized layouts. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the St. Paul P&DC.

Future of Facility

The Minneapolis Processing and Distribution Center will remain open and will be modernized. It will be repositioned as a Local Processing Center for destinating mail processing.

Local Customers

- Retail and other services currently available at the Minneapolis Processing and Distribution Center will not change.
- Business mail acceptance will remain the same.
- A local postmark will continue to be available at retail post offices.
- Delivery times of mail to residence and businesses should not change because of this review.

Commercial Mailers

- Mailers who presort mail will continue to receive appropriate postage discounts.
- Mailers who drop ship to Destination Sectional Center Facility (DSCF) can expect no changes if the MPFR is approved.

Please go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-minneapolis-mn> to submit written comments. All written comments must be received by Nov. 16, 2023.

Mail Processing Facility Review Notice of Public Input Meeting

South Suburban, IL P&DC to Chicago South RPDC

Oct. 17, 2023

As part of its 10-year strategic Delivering for America plan to modernize the nation's aging postal network, the U.S. Postal Service initiated a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the South Suburban, IL Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) to the new Chicago South RPDC. Results from the initial review support the business case. However, this MPFR, currently in review at Postal Service headquarters and its regional office, is subject to change.

A public meeting will be held to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 1 at Oak View Center, 4625 W 110th St, Room 1314, Oak Lawn IL 60453. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting.

Below are some preliminary highlights from the study:

Business Case

The Postal Service is investing heavily in operations in Illinois as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and to achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery across all mail products.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the South Suburban Processing and Distribution Center open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC) with simplified processes and standardized layouts. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Chicago South RPDC.

Future of Facility

The South Suburban, IL Processing and Distribution Center will remain open and will be modernized. It will be repositioned as a Local Processing Center for destinating mail processing.

Local Customers

- Retail and other services currently available at the South Suburban, IL Processing and Distribution Center will not change.
- Business mail acceptance will remain the same.
- A local postmark will continue to be available at retail post offices.
- Delivery times of mail to residence and businesses should not change because of this review.

Commercial Mailers

- Mailers who presort mail will continue to receive appropriate postage discounts.
- Mailers who drop ship to Destination Sectional Center Facility (DSCF) can expect no changes if the MPFR is approved.

Please go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-south-suburban-il> to submit written comments. All written comments must be received by Nov. 16, 2023.

Mail Processing Facility Review
Notice of Public Input Meeting
Trenton P&DC to Philadelphia P&DC

October 17, 2023

As part of its 10-year strategic Delivering for America plan to modernize the nation's aging postal network, the U.S. Postal Service initiated a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Trenton Processing and Distribution Center to the Philadelphia Processing and Distribution Center. Results from the initial review support the business case. However, this MPFR, currently in review at Postal Service headquarters and its regional office, is subject to change.

A public meeting will be held to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision. The meeting will be held on Thursday, November 2 at 3:00 PM at the Hibernian Club, 2419 Kuser Rd, Hamilton Square NJ 08690. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting.

Below are some preliminary highlights from the study:

Business Case

The Postal Service is investing heavily in operations in the tri-state region as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and to achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery across all mail products.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Trenton Processing and Distribution Center open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center with simplified processes and standardized layouts. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Philadelphia Processing and Distribution Center.

Future of Facility

The Trenton Processing and Distribution Center will remain open and will be modernized. It will be repositioned as a Local Processing Center for destinating mail processing.

Local Customers

- Retail and other services currently available at the Trenton Processing and Distribution Center will not change.
- Business mail acceptance will remain the same.
- A local postmark will continue to be available at retail post offices.
- Delivery times of mail to residences and businesses should not change because of this review.

Commercial Mailers

- Mailers who presort mail will continue to receive appropriate postage discounts.
- Mailers who drop ship to Destination Sectional Center Facility (DSCF) can expect no changes if the MPFR is approved.

Please go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-trenton-nj> to submit written comments. All written comments must be received by Nov. 17, 2023.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Oct. 17, 2023

POSTAL NEWS

Contact: Rod Spurgeon
rod.j.spurgeon@usps.gov
usps.com/news

USPS Proposes Improvements to Provo Processing Facility

Facility to remain open and modernized as a Local Processing Center

Public meeting to be held Nov. 2

USPS investing heavily in Utah in effort to modernize nation's aging postal network and achieve goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide

PROVO, UT — The United States Postal Service is conducting a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) of processing operations at its Provo Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC). The review was initiated to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Provo P&DC to the Salt Lake City Auxiliary Service Facility (ASF).

The Postal Service is investing heavily in its Utah operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide. The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Provo facility open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC). The Provo LPC will be a critical node in connecting mail to the new postal network. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Salt Lake City ASF.

A public meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 2, 1:00 PM at the Provo City Library at Academy Square, 550 N University Ave, Ballroom & Brimhall Rm 302, Provo UT 84606 to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting. Members of the local community may submit written comments at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-provo-ut> through Nov. 17. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision.

The Postal Service will continue to work closely with its unions and management associations throughout the facility review process. This MPFR, currently in review at USPS Headquarters and its Regional Office, is subject to change. The Postal Service will continually monitor the impact of any changes that are implemented and will adjust plans as necessary and appropriate.

###

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to nearly 165 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is implementing a 10-year transformation plan, Delivering for America, to modernize the postal network, restore long-term financial sustainability, dramatically improve service across all mail and shipping categories, and maintain the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.

For USPS media resources, including broadcast-quality video and audio and photo stills, visit the USPS Newsroom. Follow us on Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest and LinkedIn. Subscribe to the USPS YouTube channel, like us on Facebook and enjoy our Postal Posts blog. For more information about the Postal Service, visit usps.com and facts.usps.com.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Oct. 17, 2023

POSTAL NEWS

Contact: Nikki Johnson
Kanickewa.p.johnson@usps.gov
usps.com/news

USPS Proposes Improvements to Greenville Processing Facility

Facility to remain open and modernized as a Local Processing Center

Public meeting to be held Nov. 1

USPS investing heavily in the Carolinas in effort to modernize nation's aging postal network and achieve goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide

GREENVILLE, SC — The United States Postal Service is conducting a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) of processing operations at its Greenville Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC). The review was initiated to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Greenville P&DC to the new Charlotte Regional Processing and Delivery Center (RPDC).

The Postal Service is investing heavily in its operations in the Carolinas as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide. The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Greenville facility open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC). The Greenville LPC will be a critical node in connecting mail to the new Charlotte RPDC. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Charlotte LPC and Charlotte Regional Processing and Delivery Center (RPDC).

A public meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 1 at 2:00 PM at the Hughes Main Library, 25 Heritage Green Place, Rooms B & C, Greenville SC 29601 to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting. Members of the local community may submit written comments at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-greenville-sc> through Nov. 16, 2023. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision.

The Postal Service will continue to work closely with its unions and management associations throughout the facility review process. This MPFR, currently in review at USPS Headquarters and its Regional Office, is subject to change. The Postal Service will continually monitor the impact of any changes that are implemented and will adjust plans as necessary and appropriate.

###

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to nearly 165 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is implementing a 10-year transformation plan, Delivering for America, to modernize the postal network, restore long-term financial sustainability, dramatically improve service across all mail and shipping categories, and maintain the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.

For USPS media resources, including broadcast-quality video and audio and photo stills, visit the USPS Newsroom. Follow us on Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest and LinkedIn. Subscribe to the USPS YouTube channel, like us on Facebook and enjoy our Postal Posts blog. For more information about the Postal Service, visit usps.com and facts.usps.com.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Oct. 17, 2023

POSTAL NEWS

Contact: Desai Abdul-Razzaaq
desai.o.abdul-razzaaq@usps.gov
usps.com/news

USPS Proposes Improvements to Minneapolis Processing Facility

Facility to remain open and modernized as a Local Processing Center

Public meeting to be held Nov. 1

USPS investing heavily in Minnesota in effort to modernize nation's aging postal network and achieve goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide

MINNEAPOLIS, MN — The United States Postal Service is conducting a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) of processing operations at its Minneapolis Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC). The review was initiated to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Minneapolis P&DC to the St. Paul P&DC.

The Postal Service is investing heavily in its Minnesota operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide. The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Minneapolis facility open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC). The Minneapolis LPC will be a critical node in connecting mail to the state and region. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the St. Paul P&DC.

A public meeting will be held Wednesday, November 1 at 2:00 PM at the Shoreview Community Center, 4580 Victoria St N, Room B, Shoreview MN 55126 to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting. Members of the local community may submit written comments at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-minneapolis-mn> through Nov. 16. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision.

The Postal Service will continue to work closely with its unions and management associations throughout the facility review process. This MPFR, currently in review at USPS Headquarters and its Regional Office, is subject to change. The Postal Service will continually monitor the impact of any changes that are implemented and will adjust plans as necessary and appropriate.

###

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to nearly 165 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is implementing a 10-year transformation plan, Delivering for America, to modernize the postal network, restore long-term financial sustainability, dramatically improve service across all mail and shipping categories, and maintain the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.

For USPS media resources, including broadcast-quality video and audio and photo stills, visit the USPS Newsroom. Follow us on Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest and LinkedIn. Subscribe to the USPS YouTube channel, like us on Facebook and enjoy our Postal Posts blog. For more information about the Postal Service, visit usps.com and facts.usps.com.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Oct. 17, 2023

POSTAL NEWS

Contact: Tim Norman
timothy.j.norman@usps.gov
usps.com/news

USPS Proposes Improvements to South Suburban IL Processing Facility

Facility to remain open and modernized as a Local Processing Center

Public meeting to be held Nov. 1

USPS investing heavily in Illinois in effort to modernize nation's aging postal network and achieve goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide

CHICAGO, IL — The United States Postal Service is conducting a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) of processing operations at its South Suburban, IL Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC). The review was initiated to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the South Suburban, IL P&DC to the new Chicago South Regional Processing & Distribution Center (RPDC).

The Postal Service is investing heavily in its Illinois operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide. The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the South Suburban facility open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC). The South Suburban LPC will be a critical node in connecting mail to the new Chicago South RPDC. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Chicago South RPDC.

A public meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 1 at 2:00 PM at the Oak View Center, 4625 W 110th St, Room 1314, Oak Lawn IL 60453 to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting. Members of the local community may submit written comments at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-south-suburban-il> through Nov. 16. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision.

The Postal Service will continue to work closely with its unions and management associations throughout the facility review process. This MPFR, currently in review at USPS Headquarters and its Regional Office, is subject to change. The Postal Service will continually monitor the impact of any changes that are implemented and will adjust plans as necessary and appropriate.

###

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to nearly 165 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is implementing a 10-year transformation plan, Delivering for America, to modernize the postal network, restore long-term financial sustainability, dramatically improve service across all mail and shipping categories, and maintain the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.

For USPS media resources, including broadcast-quality video and audio and photo stills, visit the USPS Newsroom. Follow us on Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest and LinkedIn. Subscribe to the USPS YouTube channel, like us on Facebook and enjoy our Postal Posts blog. For more information about the Postal Service, visit usps.com and facts.usps.com.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Oct. 17, 2023

POSTAL NEWS

Contact: Xavier Hernandez
xavier.c.hernandez@usps.gov
usps.com/news

USPS Proposes Improvements to Trenton Processing Facility

Facility to remain open and modernized as a Local Processing Center

Public meeting to be held Nov. 2

USPS investing heavily in tri-state region in effort to modernize nation's aging postal network and achieve goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide

TRENTON, NJ — The United States Postal Service is conducting a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) of processing operations at its Trenton Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC). The review was initiated to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Trenton P&DC to the Philadelphia P&DC.

The Postal Service is investing heavily in its operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide. The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Trenton facility open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC). The Trenton LPC will be a critical node in connecting mail to the new postal network. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Philadelphia P&DC.

A public meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 2, 3:00 PM at the Hibernian Club, 2419 Kuser Rd, Hamilton Square, NJ 08690 to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting. Members of the local community may submit written comments at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-trenton-nj> through Nov. 17. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision.

The Postal Service will continue to work closely with its unions and management associations throughout the facility review process. This MPFR, currently in review at USPS Headquarters and its Regional Office, is subject to change. The Postal Service will continually monitor the impact of any changes that are implemented and will adjust plans as necessary and appropriate.

###

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to nearly 165 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is implementing a 10-year transformation plan, Delivering for America, to modernize the postal network, restore long-term financial sustainability, dramatically improve service across all mail and shipping categories, and maintain the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.

For USPS media resources, including broadcast-quality video and audio and photo stills, visit the USPS Newsroom. Follow us on Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest and LinkedIn. Subscribe to the USPS YouTube channel, like us on Facebook and enjoy our Postal Posts blog. For more information about the Postal Service, visit usps.com and facts.usps.com.

Stand-Up Talk

October 17, 2023

Mail Processing Facility Review Public Meeting to be held re: Provo P&DC

We notified you on September 27, 2023 that we were beginning a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) at the Provo Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) to determine if transferring some mail operations into the Salt Lake City Auxiliary Service Facility (ASF) would be effective operationally.

As you are likely aware, the Postal Service is investing heavily in processing operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Provo P&DC facility open and modernized as a Local Processing Center. The Provo LPC will play a critical role in connecting mail to the Salt Lake City ASF. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Salt Lake City ASF.

The Postal Service will hold a public meeting to explain the proposed changes on Thursday, November 2 at 1:00 PM at the Provo City Library at Academy Square, 550 N University Ave, Ballroom & Brimhall Room 302, Provo UT 84606. Attendance will be voluntary and off-the-clock for employees who choose to attend.

Any proposed changes must be approved by the Regional Vice President and Vice President, Processing and Maintenance Operations before they can be implemented. Comments on the proposal from employees and the public will be considered before any decision is made.

You can submit your comments on the study up to 15 days after the public meeting.

Comments may be submitted to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-provo-ut>

We will keep you informed about any future developments regarding this MPFR proposal.

Stand-Up Talk

October 17, 2023

Mail Processing Facility Review Public Meeting to be held re: Greenville P&DC

We notified you on September 27, 2023 that we were beginning a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) at the Greenville Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) to determine if transferring some mail operations into the Charlotte Local Processing Center (LPC) and Charlotte Regional Processing and Delivery Center (RPDC) would be effective operationally.

As you are likely aware, the Postal Service is investing heavily in processing operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Greenville P&DC facility open and modernized as a Local Processing Center. The Greenville P&DC will play a critical role in connecting mail to the Charlotte LPC and the Charlotte RPDC. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Charlotte LPC and the Charlotte RPDC.

The Postal Service will hold a public meeting to explain the proposed changes on Wednesday, November 1 at 2:00 PM at the Hughes Main Library, 25 Heritage Green Place, Rooms B & C, Greenville SC 29601. Attendance will be voluntary and off-the-clock for employees who choose to attend.

Any proposed changes must be approved by the Regional Vice President and Vice President, Processing and Maintenance Operations before they can be implemented. Comments on the proposal from employees and the public will be considered before any decision is made.

You can submit your comments on the study up to 15 days after the public meeting.

Comments may be submitted to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-greenville-sc>.

We will keep you informed about any future developments regarding this MPFR proposal.

Stand-Up Talk

October 17, 2023

Mail Processing Facility Review Public Meeting to be held re: Minneapolis P&DC

We notified you on September 27, 2023 that we were beginning a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) at the Minneapolis Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) to determine if transferring some mail operations into the St. Paul P&DC would be effective operationally.

As you are likely aware, the Postal Service is investing heavily in processing operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Minneapolis P&DC facility open and modernized as a Local Processing Center. The Minneapolis P&DC will play a critical role in connecting mail to the St. Paul P&DC. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the St. Paul P&DC

The Postal Service will hold a public meeting to explain the proposed changes on Wednesday, November 1 at 2:00 PM at the Shoreview Community Center, 4580 Victoria St N, Room B, Shoreview MN 55126. Attendance will be voluntary and off-the-clock for employees who choose to attend.

Any proposed changes must be approved by the Regional Vice President and Vice President, Processing and Maintenance Operations before they can be implemented. Comments on the proposal from employees and the public will be considered before any decision is made.

You can submit your comments on the study up to 15 days after the public meeting.

Comments may be submitted to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-minneapolis-mn>.

We will keep you informed about any future developments regarding this MPFR proposal.

Stand-Up Talk

October 17, 2023

Mail Processing Facility Review Public Meeting to be held re: SOUTH SUBURBAN, IL P&DC

We notified you on September 27, 2023 that we were beginning a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) at the South Suburban, IL Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) to determine if transferring some mail operations into the Chicago South Regional Processing and Distribution Center (RPDC) would be effective operationally.

As you are likely aware, the Postal Service is investing heavily in processing operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the South Suburban P&DC facility open and modernized as a Local Processing Center (LPC). The South Suburban LPC will play a critical role in connecting mail to the Chicago South RPDC. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Chicago South RPDC.

The Postal Service will hold a public meeting to explain the proposed changes on Wednesday, November 1 at 2:00 PM at the Oak View Center, 4625 W 110th St, Room 1314, Oak Lawn IL 60453. Attendance will be voluntary and off-the-clock for employees who choose to attend.

Any proposed changes must be approved by the Regional Vice President and Vice President, Processing and Maintenance Operations before they can be implemented. Comments on the proposal from employees and the public will be considered before any decision is made.

You can submit your comments on the study up to 15 days after the public meeting.

Comments may be submitted to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-south-suburban-il>.

We will keep you informed about any future developments regarding this MPFR proposal.

Stand-Up Talk

October 17, 2023

Mail Processing Facility Review Public Meeting to be held re: Trenton P&DC

We notified you on September 27, 2023 that we were beginning a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) at the Trenton Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) to determine if transferring some mail operations into the Philadelphia P&DC would be effective operationally.

As you are likely aware, the Postal Service is investing heavily in processing operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide.

The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Trenton P&DC facility open and modernized as a Local Processing Center. The Trenton P&DC will play a critical role in connecting mail to the Philadelphia P&DC. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Philadelphia P&DC.

The Postal Service will hold a public meeting to explain the proposed changes on Thursday, November 2 at 3:00 PM at the Hibernian Club, 2419 Kuser Rd, Hamilton Square, NJ 08690. Attendance will be voluntary and off-the-clock for employees who choose to attend.

Any proposed changes must be approved by the Regional Vice President and Vice President, Processing and Maintenance Operations before they can be implemented. Comments on the proposal from employees and the public will be considered before any decision is made.

You can submit your comments on the study up to 15 days after the public meeting.

Comments may be submitted to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-trenton-nj>.

We will keep you informed about any future developments regarding this MPFR proposal.