

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF POSTAL SUPERVISORS

NAPS Website Terms of Agreement and Rules

Updated January 2017

The National Association of Postal Supervisors (NAPS) website (www.naps.org) is one of the organization's many communication tools. The mission of the NAPS website is to complement the primary objective of the NAPS organization as established in Article II of the National Constitution and Bylaws; which states in part, to promote, through appropriate and effective action, the welfare of its members, and to widen the field of opportunity for its members who make the Postal Service or the federal government their life work. This objective is accomplished through positive and constructive communication.

The National Association of Postal Supervisors (NAPS) is a non-profit 501(c) 5 organization. The NAPS website and Bulletin Board are owned and administered by Resident Officers and Executive Board in accordance with Article VIII of the National Constitution and Bylaws. Therefore, NAPS reserves the right to delete, add, change, edit for any reason, a website or Bulletin Board topic, document, news story or post without notice to members. All the content on the NAPS website is considered the property of the NAPS national office.

The NAPS Bulletin Board is not a separate organization communication tool, but is part of the entire NAPS website. The objective of the Bulletin Board is to provide members with information to use and share with other members. When appropriate, NAPS HQ will post under the Breaking News section of the website the status of any NAPS and/or USPS initiatives. In addition the same may be posted on the NAPS Bulletin Board.

Members should contact NAPS headquarters or their respective NAPS area or regional vice presidents via email, text or phone call with issues related to how NAPS HQ conducts the business of the Association.

At the discretion of the Resident Officers, NAPS reserves the right to immediately ban a member's access to the NAPS website for any reason, including non-membership or when the member is deemed not in "good standing" with the Association. "Good standing" is defined as a member in arrears of their per capita dues or owing a debt to the NAPS organization. When the member's "good standing" is reinstated, they may contact NAPS HQ for access to the website. NAPS HQ is not obligated to notify a member when their website access has been denied. The member is responsible for contacting NAPS HQ about website access.

By registering at this site and signing in, you agree to abide by the Terms of Agreement and Rules of the NAPS website. NAPS reserves the right to remove, edit, or move any posted material, content or message for any reason.
