NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF POSTAL SUPERVISORS
LEGISLATIVE TRAINING SEMINAR | MARCH 10 - 13, 2019

Scheduling Meetings with Lawmakers. State Legislative Chairs are responsible for scheduling their state's meetings with their respective House and Senate offices. These meetings will occur on Tuesday, March 12 and if necessary, Wednesday, March 13. Check with your State Legislative Chair for further details.

NAPS meetings and talking points will focus on postal reform, MSPB appeal rights and the preservation of federal employment retirement and health benefits.

LTS Program. A terrific 3-day program is planned featuring:

Sunday: First Timer's Orientation; Nondenominational Worship; Town Hall with NAPS Resident Officers and Executive Board; and State Legislative Chairs Dinner.

Monday: Intensive legislative training by Ivan Butts, Bob Levi and Bruce Moyer, and remarks by:

- Deputy Postmaster General Ronald Stroman
- Rep. Gerry Connolly, Chairman, House Oversight and Reform Subcommittee on Government Operations
- Congressional staff on the state of postal reform

In addition, a live role play exercise will help delegates prepare for their visits on Capitol Hill. A SPAC Reception for eligible SPAC donors follows in the evening.

Tuesday and Wednesday: Meetings with House and Senate offices; and meeting debriefings.

For questions, contact: NAPS Headquarters at (703) 836-9660 or naps.rl@naps.org.
