Dear Ivan:

This is in reference to our March 5 correspondence (enclosed) proposing the establishment of a new position with the title Postmaster 18(B) (EAS-43), Occupational Code: 2301-6318.

The Postal Service created this Postmaster position with a new Occupational Code to differentiate it as special exempt where it is specified in installations designated as a Sunday hub and without earning a Supervisor Customer Services position.

There are 338 offices that have been evaluated and now meet these requirements. Postmasters will receive an updated PS Form 50 Notification of Personnel Action reflecting the change to the new Occupation Code effective June 27, 2026.

We have also enclosed a list of affected Postmasters by Area and District.

Following consultation with you, the Postal Service has decided, pursuant to Title 39 U.S. Code § 1004 to proceed with the establishment of the new position titled of Postmaster 18(B) (EAS-43), as outlined in our March 5 correspondence.

Sincerely,

Dear Ivan:

The Postal Service proposes creating a new position with the title Postmaster 18(B) (EAS-43), Occupational Code: 2301-xxxx.

The Postal Service intends to create this Postmaster position with a new Occupational Code to differentiate it as special exempt. The only change will be under Operational Requirements where it is specified the FLSA Exempt EAS-18B Postmaster are in installations designated as a Sunday hub and without an authorized supervisor position.

Enclosed are copies of the proposed final draft of the specified job descriptions.

This proposal is being provided for your review and any recommendations you may have pursuant to Title 39, U.S. Code, § 1004(d).

Please contact me if you have any questions concerning this matter or would like to meet to discuss the proposed changes.

Sincerely,
