Dear Brian:

By letter dated July 8, 2019, you were notified that as a matter of general interest, the Postal Service would partner with One Call Care Management to pilot test transportation services for injured-on-duty employees in the Triboro District.

This is official notification that the contract with One Call Care Management has been terminated and the pilot test has concluded.

Enclosed is a Stand-up talk concerning the completion of the pilot test and a letter that will be given to the employees who participated in the pilot test.

Please contact Bruce Nicholson at extension 7773 if you have any questions concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

Transportation Pilot Completion

The United States Postal Service (USPS) partnered with One Call Care Management (One Call) to make transportation services available to injured-on-duty employees of the Triboro District on a trial basis beginning July 15, 2019.

This is to notify you that these voluntary services are no longer available to employees under the USPS/One Call contract, which recently terminated.

If you chose to voluntarily participate in this program, we appreciate your involvement. You may now return to the transportation arrangements used prior to One Call's services.

Under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act, claimants may request reimbursement from the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs for reasonable and necessary transportation costs and expenses incurred to obtain authorized medical services.

If you have questions, feel free to contact your District Health & Resource Management Office.

Thank you for listening.
