Dear Brian:

As a matter of general interest, the Postal Service plans to pilot test a replacement software application for the Yard Management System (YMS) at the Atlanta Network Distribution Center (NDC).

The Postal Service will test replacing YMS with a new module in the web based Surface Visibility (SV) application. The initial test is expected to begin on May 23 at the Atlanta NDC.

If you have any questions, please contact James Lloyd at extension 3946.

Sincerely,

Rickey R. Dean
