Hello, NAPS brothers and sisters. As this issue goes to press, an essential opportunity for the Postal Service has passed that could have helped answer questions that have gone unanswered since the inception of the non-career hiring practices now in place.

That opportunity was the 2022 Workhuman® Live conference held May 16-19, 2022, in Atlanta. The concept of Workhuman solutions is to help companies attain sustainability by motivating employees to recognize, develop and celebrate each other all in one place. The key questions for consideration by this working human concept already have been answered by the USPS. Do you want to:

• cut your turnover in half?
• improve engagement and belonging?
• create resilient, more human workplaces that last?

The USPS’ answers to these questions has been a resounding “yes” based on all the failed initiatives that have and are being pursued over the past number of years. Why not try something with a 20-year proven track record?

I know you’re thinking this would end up being just another flavor-of-the-day, USPS-failed attempt to appear to have a sincere interest in transforming itself into a real workspace. However, this could be the process that moves the USPS from just seeking to exist with unions and management associations fighting for sustainability on Capitol Hill to an agency that thrives in truly valuing its employees as it supports an over two-trillion-dollar mailing industry.

With companies reporting 96% retention rates and cutting employee turnover by 50%, how could the USPS not take advantage of the possibilities? The Postal Service would be greatly served just by taking the chance to create a culture of excellence where peer-to-peer employee recognition lets everyone feel seen, heard and appreciated for who they are and the work they do. It could be an environment in which we increase retention and enhance the USPS culture by celebrating important service milestones with more than a pin or card.

In reading about Workhuman and its mission, I began to realize the USPS is great at saying the right things that make it appear the agency is operating in a working human space. However, the realities based on year after year of employee surveys prove that the words are just words.

Why not try what companies such as Accenture, Amica Mutual Insurance Company, Boston Human Capital Partners, Inc., Bright Horizons, Chevron, Cisco, Cleveland Clinic, Costco Wholesale, Ernst & Young, General Electric, Golden State Warriors, Kimpton Hotels and Restaurants, MD Anderson Cancer Center, Oracle, Phillips 66, Yale University and many others have tried and found to actually move the needle in a positive direction?

Someone recently told me it would take the USPS 10 years to become an agency that treats employees better. Well, maybe there is a better plan. Maybe there is a current, proven way to move that needle in less than 10 years. If there was a possibility and you really wanted to do more than talk about dignity and respect while employees continually indicate in surveys how you’re failing to hit the mark, wouldn’t you want to at least try something that had a corporately proven track record?

It’s not like making retention a NPA indicator has helped. Well, maybe next year.

In solidarity …

Support the Drive for 5

Have you ever thought about the value of $5? I mean, in today’s world, $5 really doesn’t have a lot of purchasing power. Gas is nearing or exceeding $5 a gallon, a Coffee Frappuccino at Starbucks can be more than $5. And, of course, a burger and fries at a fast-food joint certainly cost more than $5.

It’s now commonplace to daily spend $5 or more at many of these places. While no one can discount the value of a tank of gas or a great cup of coffee, what can those and so many other $5 expenses do to help your family put food on the table, buy a car or send your kids to college? You are probably saying to yourself, “There is no possible way that 5 bucks can provide those important things to my family.”

Ah, but think again. The “Drive for 5” can do all that and more! Recently, all working NAPS members received a Drive for 5 mailer (see facing page) at their address of record, asking them to contribute $5 from their paychecks to SPAC (Supervisors’ Political Action Committee). Can you? Did you? Why should you?

Recently, Congress passed and the President signed H.R. 3076 into law, which put the Postal Service on a path to sustainability—a track that has been in jeopardy for over a decade. That avenue to long-term viability was paved with the efforts, work and dollars of NAPS members. This was done for you—the hard-working, dedicated EAS employees who have suffered the most under the weight of postal cutbacks, loss of earnings and job instability.

Now we are asking you to help sustain our efforts on your behalf with as little as $5 per pay period. NAPS is continually involved in our political system through lobbying members of Congress, the administration and federal agencies. Why is your NAPS organization involved in these political activities?

The purpose of this lobbying is to advocate for legislation and regulations that impact the lives of active USPS managers, postmasters and supervisors. Just as importantly, we also advocate for our retirees who continually face legislation in Congress that would reduce or, in some cases, eliminate benefits and rights they were promised during their working careers.

How does NAPS accomplish these various initiatives? We regularly meet with congressional leaders to impress on them the importance of NAPS’ legislative agenda and gauge their willingness to introduce, co-sponsor and support legislation that NAPS considers vital to its members.

What is the incentive for these political leaders to support or advance NAPS’ agenda? It is the NAPS Supervisors’ Political Action Committee.

Jesse Unruh, speaker of the California State Assembly from 1961 to 1968, is credited with coining the phrase, “Money is the mother’s milk of politics,” and, for better or worse, that often is the case. In order to have our legislative priorities heard and supported, NAPS must have a healthy political action committee. And, thanks to the generous support of many NAPS members, we have that. But we need more because we must do more.

CONTRIBUTE EACH PAY PERIOD TO SPAC TO PROTECT WHAT YOU’VE EARNED AND HELP BUILD FOR THE FUTURE

A small commitment from you goes a long way to help preserve and protect your career!

The Supervisors Political Action Committee (SPAC) is the legislative fundraising arm of the National Association of Postal Supervisors.

A major element in NAPS being able to successfully promote EAS interests is our ability to elect NAPS allies to Congress. Therefore, strong support of SPAC is essential. Your generous contributions help us support current members of Congress and elect worthy House and Senate candidates who promote legislation that can directly affect you. For example, the passing of H.R. 3076 has a direct impact on your career because it includes the following items and more:

- Repeal of the retiree prefunding requirement
- Stabilization of the Postal Service’s finances by reducing its long-term liability
- Requires the Postal Service to provide 6-day mail delivery through its integrated network
- Enables the Postal Service to provide a variety of governmental non-postal products and services
- Creates an online, publicly accessible postal performance portal

Our job is far from finished. We need to improve the EAS consultative process and guarantee MSPB appeal rights for all EAS employees. It is critical that we work to elect representatives who support these issues, and safeguard our rightfully earned benefits and job security. With your support, SPAC will be able to repel efforts to dismantle and privatize the Postal Service, secure the resources and tools essential for postal survival and promote pay and benefits issues important to NAPS members.

For instructions on how to authorize a biweekly payroll allotment to SPAC, visit: naps.org/SPAC

All contributions to the Supervisors’ Political Action Committee (SPAC) are voluntary, have no bearing on NAPS membership status and are unrelated to NAPS membership dues. There is no obligation to contribute to SPAC and no penalty for choosing not to contribute. Only NAPS members and family members living in their households may contribute to SPAC. Contributions to SPAC are limited to $5,000 per individual in a calendar year. Contributions to SPAC are not tax-deductible.
I want to wish all the dads and single-parent moms who have double duty a very happy and healthy Father’s Day. Enjoy the day with your family. We all are grateful for you and what you do!

I want to thank all the NAPS members who are recruiting new members to join our great association. Many of you are going above and beyond and increasing our membership by educating nonmembers about the importance of being a NAPS member and reaching out to newly promoted supervisors. This not only makes our association stronger and more viable, but also increases our presence on Capitol Hill. Our elected representatives understand the strength and perseverance of NAPS. There is strength in numbers!

In recent months, many areas have been concentrating on building membership. Some area vice presidents have asked their respective branches to establish membership committees. This is an excellent idea. On the NAPS website, you can find the NAPS Officer Training Manual. Beginning on page 35, the manual discusses branch committees and has specific information on forming a membership committee. I strongly recommend all branches establish a membership committee and refer to this section in the manual.

A major issue we have experienced recently at NAPS Headquarters is nonmembers receiving adverse actions, then requesting to join NAPS. Article IX, Section 2, of the NAPS Bylaws specifically states:

Section 2. The DDF only is to be used for active and associate members, including individuals who were members in good standing at the time of retirement. To be eligible for representation through the DDF, an active member must meet the following criteria:

(a) the active member must have signed an application for NAPS membership sixty (60) days from the effective date of promotion from the craft, or

(b) the active member must have been a NAPS member no fewer than ninety (90) days prior to the charge being issued, and

(c) any additional criteria outlined in the “Disciplinary Defense Fund: Procedures and Guidelines for Branch Presidents” in the NAPS Officer Training Manual.

Paragraph (b) is important to convey to those who are not members. You must be a member no fewer than 90 days prior to the charge being issued—that is, receiving the action. It is extremely important for branches to monitor their DCO member and nonmember reports. Some nonmembers mistakenly believe they are a NAPS member because they have been erroneously informed and, instead, are a member of other associations, some of which are not recognized by the Postal Service.

In order to verify whether or not someone is an active member, contact NAPS Headquarters. We will verify their status. NAPS members have the code “S” stipulated on their pay stubs, which indicates NAPS dues are being withdrawn. If in doubt, ask!

This is why it is so important for branches to verify their nonmember lists. If a branch submits a request for DDF representation and it is determined the member does not qualify based on Article IX, the branch will be charged for all expenses. Better safe than sorry!

Thanks to our membership champions and members of the “High-Five Club.” Increasing membership demonstrates leadership!

Stay safe!

USPS Increases Annual Leave Carryover for FY22

Pursuant to recent discussions with NAPS, the Postal Service will increase the annual leave carryover maximum for career nonbargaining employees by 80 hours for the FY22 leave year. The maximum carryover for annual leave will be 640 hours.

As a reminder, the August 2021 pay decision modified the annual leave exchange program for FY22 and 23 and increased the annual leave exchange by 40 hours. The maximum amount of annual leave that may be exchanged by career nonbargaining employees for those fiscal years is 168 hours.

Spring Has Sprung—Time for SPAC Contributions to Bloom!

Dee Perez
New York Area Vice President

Ev eryone, take a few days of annual leave to smell the flowers and enjoy the warmer climate. Try and break away from the daily stress our jobs dish out, while trying to achieve some unattainable goals.

In the meantime, give yourself a pat on the back for what has been achieved. If you’ve been a contributor to a NAPS 50/50 SPAC drawing at a local branch meeting or national or state convention (be it $5, $10, $20 or more), if you went online and asked your representative and senators to support H.R. 3076, you deserve a pat on the back. No contribution is too small; it all counts.

For those who attended the Northeast Region Training Seminar in beautiful Puerto Rico, thank you for your contributions, as well. All contributions are greatly appreciated. We completed a successful Legislative Training Seminar this past March that culminated in the signing of H.R. 3076 into law in April. The legislation essentially will make the USPS solvent again. I can’t recall the last time the USPS was solvent, to be honest.

We have many people to thank other than the obvious legislators who supported this giant piece of legislation. What was unique this time was the legislation had bipartisan support. Let me spell this out for you. We had Democrats and Republicans supporting the bill.

For the time in which we live and work, politically speaking, this is a major accomplishment. Everyone who was active in contributing and sending emails to our legislative leaders deserves a huge thank-you for their efforts.

However, there is one person who really tipped the scales in getting this done. Politics aside, the Postal Service badly needed H.R. 3076. The agency for which we all work provides a roof over our heads, pays our bills, feeds our loved ones and educates our children, as well as so many other benefits that allow us to live a good life.

That person is Postmaster General Louis DeJoy. For those of you who are not aware of the inner workings of the USPS (not that I am), our leader explained to our politicians why the passage of H.R. 3076 was important and necessary for the continued success of the USPS. As a result, there was bipartisan support that got the bill passed.

Once again, politics and political affiliation aside, you must appreciate that our PMG stepped up and supported the agency to help accomplish this for all of us. Many other PMGs have tried, but failed. Passage of H.R. 3076 has wiped out our debt, maintained six-day delivery and so much more—something no other previous postmaster general has been able to achieve. For this, all of us should extend a grateful hand and say, “Thank you, PMG DeJoy!”

We now have another bill on which to focus for passage: H.R. 3077, the Postal Service Improvement Act.

At the 2010 NAPS National Convention, Resolution #57 was passed:

“WHEREAS, The Postal Supervisor is a monthly publication paid for by members’ dues, and

“WHEREAS, For the first time in the history of NAPS, officially announced resident officer candidates are allowed to place election advertisements in The Postal Supervisor, and

“WHEREAS, The officially announced resident officer candidates are being required to purchase these advertisements, therefore be it

“RESOLVED, That, for the good of the membership, NAPS puts in print in The Postal Supervisor the currently announced candidates for the three national officers in three issues before the convention.”

These NAPS members have announced their candidacies for the three resident officer positions:

President—Ivan D. Butts
Executive Vice President—Chuck Mulidore
Secretary/Treasurer—James Warden

Once again, we need everyone’s support. We need more SPAC contributions from every EAS employee! Don’t forget that UPS, FedEx and Amazon have very deep lobbying pockets and PAC dollars. Midterm elections are right around the corner and, if history repeats itself, we will shift to a Republican-controlled house. Money talks if this happens.

We need everyone to contribute in order to receive support from the politicians to introduce and pass our legislative agenda. The payback is secure jobs, benefits and so much more.

Don’t forget your homework assignment this month! I need everyone to sign one non-NAPS member. You will get $25 for each member you sign with an 1187.

There Never Has Been a Better Time To Be a NAPS Member

Dan Mooney
North Central Area Vice President

At the North Central Area conventions I attend, I offer presentations that explain the importance of increasing NAPS membership and recruiting non-members. These prospective members include USPS Headquarters and area employees, postmasters, managers and supervisors—new and old.

Increasing membership benefits NAPS locally and financially. But, more importantly, membership in NAPS gives members opportunities to network, coach and mentor each other. And membership gives branches the ability for members to attend other functions to network, coach and mentor on a wider scale, then share that knowledge with their branches.

In late April, I attended via Zoom and in person, a Central Area New Supervisor Program training class attended by more than 150 new supervisors. I told them why they need to join NAPS. There is no better time than now to recruit new members.

NAPS is coming off a historic, successful and well-earned positive decision on its lawsuit appeal. The Appeals Court settled NAPS’ ability to represent all EAS employees in its favor and remanded some pay issues to be decided. The outlook is looking good for all EAS employees because of what NAPS has done and is doing for all EAS employees.

All the issues in the lawsuit benefit all EAS employees. No other management organization represents and defends its membership as NAPS does. One management organization actually tried to block NAPS’ lawsuit from moving forward to acquire better pay that would also benefit its members. Think about that for a minute!

Clearly, NAPS is the premier postal management organization in which to be a member. We stand up for our members and represent them better than any other management organization. This is the perfect time to explain and enlighten non-members as to all NAPS has done and all it has to offer.

Branches always should have a supply of membership folders on hand and use them as needed. If you need membership folders, call NAPS Headquarters and they will send you what you need. Once you get a new member’s 1187, tell them when and where the next branch meeting is. Let’s get on a roll and strike while the iron is hot.

There never has been a better time to be a NAPS member. Good luck recruiting! Be a good leader and they will follow you.

Can I Get A Ruling?

Brian J. Wagner
Immediate Past President

You may have heard rules referred to as a “rule of thumb,” the Golden Rule and “rules to live by.” You also may have heard, “rules are made to be followed” and “rules are made to be broken.” I’m not sure where anyone stands on the concept that rules are to be either followed or broken. But, regardless, there is a reference to the right answer. Here’s the scoop!

According to Article III of the NAPS Bylaws, the proceedings of all NAPS branch meetings shall be governed by parliamentary procedure in accordance with “Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised.” By having rules, you have order. In NAPS’ case, it is the newly revised 12th edition of “Robert’s Rules.”

In brief, “Robert’s Rules of Order” is a comprehensive handbook on parliamentary procedure that provides instruction, in part, on who may speak at a meeting and when and how various motions and amendments to motions are handled. “Robert’s Rules” also discusses debating motions, suspending the rules, voting, the reconsideration of votes and what is considered “in order” and “out of order.”

Basically, “Robert’s Rules” provides for democratic rule, meeting flexibility, protection of rights and a fair hearing for everyone who attends a meeting. Understanding and following parliamentary rules during a meeting ensures branch business can be accomplished effectively.

Whether recognized to speak at a NAPS branch meeting, state or national convention, the member speaking has a reason for their viewpoint. It is their “voice of reason” and they should not be verbally mocked or condemned for their position on an issue—either during or after their comments—by those with differing viewpoints.

Under “Robert’s Rules,” all recognized speakers should be given the dignity and respect to have their voice heard. In the end, it’s the final democratic majority vote that decides the will of the membership. That vote, too, should be respected by the membership, including those who voted in the minority. However, there also is a rule for reconsideration of a vote.

If you have attended a recent NAPS national convention, you probably witnessed NAPS parliamentarian Dr. Bruce Bishop provide counsel and address the delegation. He sits on stage next to the podium to assist the chair (NAPS president) with rulings when a procedural issue arises. At the 68th NAPS National Convention in New Orleans this August, you will see Bishop in action.

Speaking of action, for local branches, the branch president is responsible for taking action when conducting and keeping order during a branch meeting. This includes making sure “Robert’s Rules” is followed. However, the branch may want to consider having a branch parliamentarian—appointed by the branch president.

The branch parliamentarian should be familiar with “Robert’s Rules of Order” to ensure the meeting is conducted properly and orderly. Just as importantly, the parliamentarian helps ensure the voices of the majority and minority are properly balanced. When an individual is recognized by the chair to speak on an issue, pro or con, that person’s right to be heard is protected.

Acting as branch parliamentarian is an important duty and responsibility. Be advised, the parliamentarian is a neutral party in branch proceedings with no branch vote. In counsel with Bishop, besides the obligation of neutrality, the parliamentarian has no real authority during the meeting.

Their only role is to offer advice and counsel to the presiding officer and, if requested, explain parliamentary issues to the members. The presiding officer is not obligated to follow the advice of the parliamentarian. Therefore, if being a branch parliamentarian is your calling, do you know where to start?

First, familiarize yourself with the 12th edition of “Robert’s Rules of Order,” it’s about 800 pages. However, there is a “Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised In Brief” that is fewer than 225 pages. Both books can be purchased online or at most local book stores. You also can search the internet to find an electronic version to download. Be advised there may be costs involved in acquiring the books.

Second, Bishop has written a booklet titled “Parliamentary Pizza.” Delegates at the past two NAPS national conventions got a copy in

One of the signature lines regarding completing an official task uttered by fictional White House Deputy Chief of Staff Josh Lyman on “The West Wing” was, “What’s next?” Fictional President Josiah Bartlett explained that the phrase means it’s time to move on to other things rather than bask in the glory of success or grumble in the shadow of disappointment.

Nevertheless, I will state for the record that the triumph of the 2022 NAPS Legislative Training Seminar (LTS) was a momentous tribute to the efforts of its nearly 400 participants who engaged with their representatives and senators. This dovetailed nicely with the subsequent signing into law of the Postal Service Reform Act of 2022, now Public Law 117-108.

There are two equal and critical takeaways from LTS. Attendees must inspire all NAPS-represented postal employees to political action and they must empower EAS personnel to battle in support of meaningful and constructive legislation. Almost 45,000 postal employees—postal supervisors, managers and postmasters—are a strong, formidable force in securing a stable and productive future for the Postal Service, its employees and retirees.

NAPS branches and state associations are fertile grounds to cultivate and nurture breakthrough EAS activism. Therefore, now, with the COVID-19 pandemic receding, we need to encourage EAS postal employees to re-acquaint themselves with NAPS’ prowess in navigating the legislative, political, regulatory, representational and legal means to fight for its members. Moving forward, of paramount importance to postal supervisors, managers and postmasters is how the Postal Service treats the mailing public and its employees.

A highly touted, recently dusted off 2020 Pew Research Center poll reported that 91% of Americans had a favorable view of the Postal Service. For the most part, postal favorability has been predicated on service. Effective, reliable and prompt mail and package delivery to rural and postal-reliant America has sustained the country’s love affair with the agency and its employees.

As NAPS members know full well, over the recent past, postal higher-ups have attempted to recalibrate America’s expectations about the Postal Service in order to insulate the agency from criticism about new postal tardiness. In fact, a recent Gallup poll reported this past fall found that postal favorability tumbled 17% since its previous poll in 2020.

Gallup suggested the reason for the steep decline was the increase in the number of days for mailed matter to reach intended recipients. Compounding the problem was an apparent misrepresentation the Postal Service made to the Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) regarding enhanced “reliability” resulting from the transition to a slower mode of mail movement; that is, transporting First-Class Mail by ground instead of air.

When the Postal Service requested a PRC advisory opinion, it stipulated that 95% of mail matter would reach its destination under the proposed slowed-down standard. At the time, the PRC cautioned that the agency was assuming factors not demonstrated and prospective cost savings, if any, would be minimal. Most prophetic, however, the PRC opined that the Postal Service could not demonstrate it was capable of unifying the proposed ground transportation modality with its new performance standards and the ambiguity of when the Postal Service would be able to meet its revised standards.

So, it was no surprise that the Postal Service, in a recent PRC filing, “clarified” its previous representation by indicating the new performance standards likely would be met “over several years.” This type of declaration does not instill confidence or respect in the mailing public.

Permit me to write from personal experience. I sent tracked mail that previously would have traveled from northern Virginia directly to Cleveland, possibly using a Pittsburgh postal facility as a site to switch mail trucks. Instead of making this two-day, 370-mile trip, my mail was trucked through Indianapolis, resulting in a four-day, 900-mile excursion. The White House, Congress and the PRC must take a hard look at postal performance, with the goal of restoring America’s confidence in our postal system, thereby curtailing diversion of mail to speedier and potentially more reliable postal competitors.

The stunning NAPS victory at the federal courthouse validated our claims that the Postal Service violated the law in consultations with NAPS over EAS pay, benefits and representation. The right of NAPS to represent virtually all EAS-level postal employees now is settled law. The Court of Appeals has directed the federal district court to decide the magnitude of the pay differential, pay comparability amount and back-pay to which EAS level employees are entitled.

Much of this caustic litigation would have been unnecessary had legislation been enacted to ensure EAS employees had access to a fair and equitable consultative process. The primary reason for NAPS’ lawsuit was the Postal Service’s recurring failure to fairly and constructively consult with NAPS.

Pending legislation—H.R. 1623 and 3077—includes provisions, if they had been in place, that would have rendered NAPS’ successful legal action against the USPS unnecessary. Therefore, NAPS will redouble its efforts to push passage of legislation to make the recommendations and findings of a properly constituted, expert fact-finding panel binding on the Postal Service. In this way, the agency will be encouraged to treat its EAS employees with the dignity and respect to which they are entitled in the context of the consultative process.

How do we accomplish these goals? We must leverage the power of the approximately 45,000 EAS postal employees to promote NAPS’ legislative and political priorities. We must strengthen our branch and state networking to equip EAS employees with the essential tools for advocacy. And we must manage the information we share with each other and policymakers to ensure they have the data necessary to make responsible decisions on our behalf.

What’s next?

Correction: In the May “Legislative Update,” the Senate Republican from Florida was erroneously referred to as Scott Perry. The correct name is Sen. Rick Scott.

The Postal Service Reform Act of 2022 was signed into law by President Joe Biden. Many thanks are owed to the NAPS Legislative Team and local branch legislative representatives. How does this law directly affect Postmasters?

For the most part, it does not. However, two sections of the law will. One is the ability of the Postal Service to provide non-postal services. As of this writing, I am not aware of any changes to any post offices.

The second section is operational transparency. This information will be posted to an online website broken down by ZIP code. This is something in our direct control.

The Sampling Performance Metric (SPM) is nothing new. It is how the Postal Service tracks letter and flats delivery performance. It requires your carriers and clerks to scan all mail pieces being delivered to the requested addresses on delivery.

In order for the system to work properly, make sure your employees sample all the mail being delivered on that day—nothing from previous days. Also ensure that all requests are performed. The system is not perfect, but there is the ability to determine when and where requests were made. When a sample is missed, you will have to question your employees as to why. This is an essential function of their jobs; hold them accountable.

Scanning integrity is more important now than ever. Customers have the ability to not only know what day they should receive a package, but what time, as well. It is up to us to make sure all packages receive a stop-the-clock scan.

We also have the ability to determine where a package was scanned. With the exception of PO box deliveries, no package should be scanned “delivered at the office.” Again, hold your carriers accountable: proper scans at the correct place and time.

Due to the decline of COVID-19 cases, in-person meetings are beginning to take place. It is a welcome change to meet with my fellow postmasters again. Please remember that some offices were affected more than others during the pandemic. Try to take care of each other as best you can.

We are our greatest resource. If you have something another office needs—equipment, personnel or just good advice—share it!

their convention bag. It’s an easy and fun read that reviews the basics of parliamentary procedure in layman’s terms. Branches may purchase copies of “Parliamentary Pizza” by contacting Bishop at brucebishop99@gmail.com.

Third, the NAPS Executive Board Training & Development Committee, of which I am a member, developed a PDF presentation on understanding parliamentary procedure. This presentation can be found on the NAPS website at www.naps.org.

Fourth, those interested in further expanding the depths and their knowledge of parliamentary procedure may want to consider online courses and learning opportunities from the National Association of Parliamentarians (NAP), not to be confused with NAPS!

However, there is no confusion that it is almost time for my daily retirement nap, not naps, as I take only one a day. Therefore, I make a motion to adjourn this article and move to my ice-cream-flavor-of-the-month recommendation: coffee cookie crumble. All in flavor (favor)—it’s unanimous!

Over the past year, postal allies in the House and Senate have jump-started a key legislative initiative to help rescue, restore and revitalize the nation’s postal system. NAPS celebrates House and Senate passage of H.R. 3076, the Postal Service Reform Act of 2022. NAPS also applauds the House Oversight and Reform Committee’s approval of H.R. 3077, the Postal Service Improvement Act. These bills represent the first steps in a comprehensive legislative effort to rebuild the nation’s mail system. NAPS believes that meaningful legislation should put the Postal Service on a sustainable financial and successful operational path. Therefore, NAPS supports comprehensive proposals to help assure prompt and reliable mail service to all Americans through sufficient postage revenues, high-quality postal operations and fair fiscal treatment of the Postal Service.

Fundamental to this effort is the goal of re-establishing America’s trust and confidence in our postal system. The perfect storm of the 16-year-old punitive requirement to prefund future retiree health benefits, shrinking mail volume, the COVID-19 pandemic, ill-advised operational changes to slow down mail and politicization of the federal agency have combined to undermine America’s approval of the agency.

In fact, a recent national poll conducted by the Gallup Organization reported that America’s job evaluation of the Postal Service tumbled by 17 percent over the past two years. Despite this significant decline, 57 percent of the American public still rates the Postal Service favorably, placing it only three points behind NASA, as the second-ranked federal agency. The 2020 national election and the COVID-19 pandemic have provided the Postal Service the opportunity to reconfirm its core mission of “binding the nation together.” In 2020, the Postal Service was instrumental in delivering democracy for our nation by transporting 543 million pieces of election mail. And, more recently, the agency helped protect America’s health by delivering vital COVID-19 antigen tests to millions of our neighbors’ mailboxes.

Postal Rescue Is Necessary

A national mail system is one of the few inherently governmental functions specifically enumerated in the U.S. Constitution (Article I, Section 8). The architects of our country strongly believed in a national postal system because such an entity promotes communication, education and commerce. The United States also has relied on the Postal Service to help protect public health and safeguard our democracy.

In 1970, the Postal Department was reorganized as the U.S. Postal Service, a self-funded independent establishment within the Executive Branch of the federal government. As such, it was converted from a taxpayer-financed, cabinet-level department into a separately managed federal agency that relies on postage for its operational revenue. In recent years, the Postal Service has been battered by falling First-Class and Marketing Mail volume and the associated shrinking revenue. The agency also was penalized by an unforgiving, congressionally imposed obligation to prefund its future retiree health benefits. There also have been numerous structural challenges that have prevented the institution from meeting the expectations of the American public.

Legislative rescue, restoration and revitalization are necessities and must address the following key issues:

- Relief from postal retiree health obligations and liabilities
- Adapting to the changed mail mix and its associated revenue
- Improving postal delivery performance
- Modernizing the postal infrastructure and delivery fleet

Moreover, NAPS strongly believes that a well-motivated and fairly treated supervisory and managerial workforce is a vital factor in ensuring postal survival and success.

H.R. 3076, the Postal Service Reform Act of 2022

On Feb. 8, 2022, the House of Representatives passed, by a landslide margin of 342-92, the Postal Service Reform Act of 2022; on March 8, the Senate passed the bill by an overwhelming 79-18 majority. We expect President Joe Biden to have signed H.R. 3076 into law by this year’s NAPS Legislative Training Seminar.

The NAPS-supported legislation provides the Postal Service with financial breathing space to stabilize its operations and finances. In sum, H.R. 3076 repeals the retiree health prefunding requirement and substantially reduces the Postal Service’s health insurance liability, saving the agency about $50 billion over the next decade. The bill also saves the federal government about $1.5 billion. In addition, the bill authorizes the Postal Service to offer non-postal governmental products and services to the American public, requires the Postal Service to provide six-day mail delivery through an integrated delivery network and authorizes the creation of a publicly accessible, online performance portal on which our customers can monitor postal performance by ZIP code. Clearly, this measure does not provide the Postal Service and its employees all the tools it needs to thrive, but it’s a step in the right direction and has earned NAPS’ support.

Repeal of Prefunding: The foundation on which H.R. 3076 rests is repeal of the requirement the USPS make prefunding payments on behalf of future postal retirees. The Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act of 2006 (PAEA) required the agency to make annual payments into the Postal Service Retirement Health Benefit Fund from fiscal years 2007 through 2016. Beginning in 2017, the Postal Service was obligated to make payments to cover the institution’s unfunded liability through the year 2056. H.R. 3076 repeals the provisions in PAEA that established these onerous, punitive and unique financial obligations. As a result, the Postal Service will be relieved of a $33.9 billion obligation in defaulted prefunding payments and $13.2 billion in defaulted payments for certain future retiree health costs and amortization payments.

Postal Health Benefits Plan: H.R. 3076 also will establish a postal-only component within the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHBP). As such, the postal plan will be structured similarly to the FEHBP and continue to be administered by the Office of Personnel Management. The same plans available in the FEHBP, which have at least 1,500 postal enrollees, will participate in the postal plan and provide equivalent benefits. The method for calculating the employer contribution used for postal employees and postal retirees will remain unchanged from current practice. All postal employees and retirees will participate in the postal-only plan starting Jan. 1, 2025.

Medicare Integration: The postal health plan within the FEHBP enables the Postal Service and its health plan participants to benefit from the savings gained by implementing Medicare integration for individuals retiring from the Postal Service on or after Jan. 1, 2025. This means future retirees will enroll in Medicare to be eligible for post-employment postal health coverage. Current postal retirees are exempt from this requirement. In addition, employees aged 64 or older as of Jan. 1, 2024, postal retirees covered by the Veterans Administration or Indian Health Service and retirees living abroad also will be exempt from Medicare coverage. Current retirees who previously declined Medicare coverage may enroll in Medicare during a special one-time, six-month open season in 2024. The USPS will pay the late enrollment penalty. As a result of Medicare integration, the Postal Service will provide prescription drug coverage through a Medicare Part D Employer-Group Waiver Plan, which is part of the postal health plan. As a result of Medicare integration, health premiums will be less than they would have been absent integration.

Six-Day Delivery Network: H.R. 3076 requires the USPS to maintain an “integrated” network for six-day mail delivery. In practice, the Postal Service must preserve a mail system that provides nondiscriminatory, universal mail service for conventional mail and packages that use vehicles that transport all categories of mail. Opponents of the integrated system jeopardize the integrity and affordability of universal service.

Operational Transparency: H.R. 3076 requires the USPS to establish and report on targets and performance to meet service standards for market-dominant postal products (e.g., First-Class, advertising and periodical mail). This information will be posted on an online ZIP-code searchable website that will be updated weekly.

Non-Postal Services: H.R. 3076 enables the USPS to enter into agreements with state, local and tribal governments to provide non-postal services to increase revenue for the agency. For example, the USPS will be able to offer driving and hunting licenses, identity verification services and municipal permitting.

H.R. 3077, the Postal Service Improvement Act of 2021

In May 2021, the House Oversight and Reform Committee favorably reported H.R. 3077. It is now awaiting consideration by the full House. This measure complements H.R. 3076. The measure would standardize the address block on absentee ballot envelopes, improve postal performance and enhance the postal work environment. Most importantly, H.R. 3077 includes the text of two NAPS legislative priorities: H.R. 1623, the Postal Supervisors and Managers Fairness Act, and H.R. 1624, the Postal Employees Appeal Rights Amendments Act.

Postal Supervisor, Manager and Postmaster Fairness: H.R. 3077 includes the text of legislation (H.R. 1623, the Postal Supervisors and Managers Fairness Act), introduced by Reps. Gerry Connolly (D-VA) and Michael Bost (R-IL). The provision would modify the process for consulting over pay and benefits for EAS-level postal employees.

On Feb. 22, 2022, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit ruled that the Postal Service violated the law with regard to consulting with NAPS over pay and benefits. The failure of the Postal Service to comply with the law in determining compensation in 2018 and ignoring the findings of an independent Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service fact-finding panel resulted in NAPS seeking a judicial remedy. The Court of Appeals remanded to the Federal District Court the determination as to the magnitude of the remedy, including back pay. Enactment of this provision in H.R. 3077 would preclude future costly and protracted litigation over EAS-level postal employee compensation issues.

Specifically, the provision included in H.R. 3077 would establish a reasonable timeline for the USPS to propose to NAPS any changes in pay policies, pay schedules or fringe-benefits programs for postal supervisors and other managerial personnel. If, after consultations, the USPS and NAPS are unable to reach an agreement, the provision would make binding the decision of the independent fact-finding panel appointed by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Postal Manager Appeal Rights: H.R. 3077 includes the text of legislation (H.R. 1624, the Postal Employee Appeal Rights Amendment Act), introduced by Reps. Gerry Connolly (D-VA) and David McKinley (R-WV). The provision would extend to virtually all EAS-level postal employees the right to appeal adverse personnel actions to the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB).

Presently, the Postal Service has denied such due-process rights to over 5,000 EAS-level postal employees who are categorized as Headquarters personnel. These employees have needed to rely on an internal and unfair appeals process.

Mail-Ballot Address Standardization: H.R. 3077 requires that absentee ballots sent through the Postal Service contain a barcode to help the USPS track each ballot, a standard ballot envelope design and an official election-mail logo. This section also authorizes the federal government to reimburse states for the cost of using the USPS barcode service. The increased role the Postal Service has played in accepting, processing and delivering absentee election ballots makes this provision important in assuring the security of absentee ballots.

Paid Parental Leave for Postal Employees: H.R. 3077 would amend the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 to provide postal employees with paid parental leave.

Restoration of First-Class Mail Standards: H.R. 3077 includes a provision to restore the service standards to the level in effect on Jan. 1, 2021. Restoration of these standards responds to nationwide criticism to the mail slow-down initiated by Postal Service Headquarters. The operational change delayed mail delivery for millions of Americans, including postal customers expecting medications and those sending bill payments. The removal of essential mail processing equipment, combined with the substitution of air transport with ground transport of the mail and COVID-related absenteeism have had a major impact on the time it takes to deliver mail. The slippage in America’s confidence in the mail system, as measured by the Gallup Organization, is largely attributable to the mail slow-down.

Modernization of the Postal Delivery Fleet: The USPS recently contracted with Oshkosh Defense to replace the aging postal delivery fleet; 90 percent of the new fleet is reported to be gas-fueled. The trucks currently in service were manufactured between 1987 and 1994 and intended to have only a 24-year lifespan. Moreover, the current fleet is without essential safety devices and climate control. H.R. 3077 authorizes the appropriation of $8 billion to purchase new vehicles and for the infrastructure to support them. Seventy-five percent of the appropriation must be used for the purchase and support of an electric delivery fleet.

Safeguarding the Mail and Postal Employee

The pandemic-generated increase in parcel delivery, combined with the reliance of many communities in the mail delivery of prescription medication and negotiable financial documents, have resulted in heightened concern about mail theft. In fact, mail theft complaints increased by 161 percent from March 2020 to February 2021. Strong and visible postal law enforcement deters crime against the mail and postal employees who carry the mail.

The sanctity of mail is not limited to within the perimeter of postal property. Mail is protected under federal law from the time it is inserted into a mail collection device until the time it is in the hands of the intended recipient. For this reason, NAPS supports the important authority that postal police officers need to protect the mail and the employees who accept, process and deliver it. Therefore, it is crucial that postal police be able to prevent and investigate postal crimes, whether such crimes take place in a postal facility, outside a postal facility or on the delivery route of a letter carrier or mail-truck driver. NAPS support H.R. 5587, the Postal Police Reform Act, which ensures that postal police are capable of fully performing their law-enforcement responsibilities.

Retirement Security

Like other members of the federal workforce, current and former employees of the U.S. Postal Service are entitled to participate in the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) or the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS). In addition, most members of the postal community also contribute to the Thrift Savings Plan; many retirees also participate in the Social Security System.

The CSRS was created in 1920 as a federal employees’ defined-benefits pension fund that provides retirement, disability and survivor benefits for those hired as federal and postal employees before 1984. CSRS participants do not participate in Social Security unless they worked in the private sector. Postal and federal employees hired after 1983 are covered by FERS, a three-pronged retirement system that includes a modest defined-benefit component (FERS), Social Security and a defined-contribution component, the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP). Both CSRS and Social Security benefits are adjusted annually to reflect the increase in the consumer price index. FERS benefits also are adjusted annually, but the adjustment is usually 1 percent less than the consumer price index. All FERS participants receive an automatic 1 percent agency contribution into their TSP account and dollar-for-dollar match for the next 3 percent of salary; the agency makes a 50 cents-to-dollar match up to 5 percent of salary. CSRS participants may contribute to TSP, but without an agency match. Moreover, the TSP allows account holders to invest their contributions in a variety of different funds managed by the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board.

Cost-of-Living Adjustments

Retirement security is sustained by maintaining the purchasing power of postal annuitants during their retirement years. Inflation chips away at earned benefits and jeopardizes a retiree’s income security. Consequently, both CSRS and FERS include a cost-of-living-adjustment (COLA), although FERS includes a reduced COLA. Over the years, past Congresses and administrations have sought to reduce COLAs to balance the budget and reduce federal spending at the expense of CSRS and FERS annuitants. (Only in a few instances were Social Security COLAs under assault.) NAPS steadfastly opposes any attempt to reduce retirement COLAs. In addition, NAPS believes that both CSRS and FERS should provide their annuitants with the same level of inflation protection (i.e., a full COLA).

Enhanced Inflation Protection: The Consumer Price Index for Wage Earners and Clerical Workers (CPI-W) is used to calculate the inflation rate for federal retirement benefits, including Social Security. This specific index tracks price changes for a market basket of products and services purchased by working Americans. However, the market basket for senior citizens is not the same as the market basket for younger Americans and is characterized by a meaningfully higher rate of inflation. For example, retirees tend to purchase more medical services than other consumers. Consequently, the federal government’s Bureau of Labor Statistics maintains a separate index for a market basket of products and services purchased by senior citizens. This index is called the Consumer Price Index for the Elderly (CPI-E). Historically, the difference is about 0.2 percent higher under the CPI-E. NAPS believes that retirement annuities, including Social Security, should use the CPI-E to calculate retirement COLAs. H.R. 4315, the Fair COLA for Seniors Act, and H.R. 5723, Social Security 2100, would implement this change.

COLA Equity: As previously referenced, the CSRS and FERS retirement systems fail to provide the same level of inflation protection for postal and federal annuitants. FERS is inferior. During periods of high inflation, such as currently being experienced, FERS COLA protection is reduced as compared to CSRS. Specifically, when the CPI-W is less than 2 percent in a year, FERS and CSRS annuitants will receive the same COLA. If the CPI-W is between 2 percent and 3 percent, CSRS annuitants would receive a full COLA, while the FERS COLA would be capped at 2 percent. If the CPI-W exceeds 3 percent, CSRS annuitants would be entitled to a full COLA, while FERS annuitants receive 1 percent below the CPI-W. Over time, FERS inflation protection can erode significantly. NAPS believes that all federal and postal retirees have earned the same degree of inflation protection. H.R. 304, the Equal COLA Act, would provide such equity.

Social Security Discrimination: Two, almost 40-year-old Social Security provisions, the Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) and the Government Pension Offset (GPO), reduce the Social Security benefits of many CSRS annuitants. The WEP applies to CSRS annuitants, with Social Security entitlement, who worked fewer than 30 years in the private sector. About 2 million Social Security beneficiaries are penalized by the WEP (this includes federal, postal, state and municipal retirees). The GPO impacts the Social Security survivor’s benefit of CSRS annuitants. Under the GPO, the Social Security survivor’s benefit is reduced by an amount equal to two-thirds of the CSRS annuity. About 724,000 Social Security survivors are impacted by the GPO (this includes federal, postal, state and municipal retirees). NAPS believes the WEP and GPO should be repealed.

A series of bills have been introduced to eliminate or lessen the adverse impact on annuitants harmed by the WEP and GPO. H.R. 82, H.R. 5723 and S. 1302 would repeal the WEP and GPO. In addition, H.R. 4788 would eliminate the WEP for annuitants whose monthly combined Social Security and non-Social Security annuity is $5,500 or less. Finally, H.R. 2337 and H.R. 5834 would reform the WEP formula to reduce its effect.

Qualified and Motivated Postal Governance

Over the past decade, there have been extended periods of time when the U.S. Postal Board of Governors lacked a working quorum and, for more than one year, lacked any presidentially nominated members at all.

A well-qualified and mission-motivated board is essential to sustain our nation’s most respected national treasure, the U.S. Postal Service. American citizens entrust an affordable, universal, accessible, prompt and reliable national mail system to the board and its hires. As outlined in law, the members of the Board of Governors must represent the “public interest.” Therefore, our elected leaders must hold accountable those entrusted with this sacred responsibility.

Under law, the agency is governed by nine presidentially nominated and Senate confirmed members of the Board of Governors. No more than five governors may be of the same political party. The Postmaster General and Deputy Postmaster General also are members of the Board of Governors, but are not nominated by the president. The Postmaster General is hired by the board and serves at its pleasure. The Deputy Postmaster General is hired by the Postmaster General and the other members of the board and serves at their pleasure.

There presently are eight presidentially nominated members of the Board of Governors: five were nominated by former President Donald Trump and three were nominated by President Joe Biden. Last fall, President Biden nominated former head of the General Services Administration Dan Tangherlini to replace former Governor Ron Bloom, and former Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget Derek Kan to replace current Governor John Barger. Tangherlini served in the administration of former President Barack Obama; Kan served in the administration of former President Trump.

NAPS believes the Senate should promptly confirm the two Board of Governor nominees to restore the board to full complement.

Postal Innovation

About 20 years ago, then Postmaster General William Henderson publicly mused about the potential for the U.S. Postal Service to be a communications, technology and government service innovation incubator. In part, it was his view that the Postal Service and its employees were well positioned to experiment and beta-test delivering a wide variety of products and services to the American public. The goal was to explore and implement new strategies to generate revenue for the agency. Some of the products and services simply would be an expansion of postal-oriented commodities; other products and services would be trail-blazing.

In current times, as the Postal Service is being challenged by shrinking mail volume, expanding postal products and services is vital.

Shipment of Alcoholic Beverages

NAPS supports legislative efforts to authorize the USPS to ship alcoholic beverages. Such authority would end the Prohibition-era ban that prevents the Postal Service from shipping alcoholic beverages to consumers.

For decades, winemakers have been legally allowed to ship bottles of wine via private shipping companies. It has generated substantial revenue for such carriers. However, the Postal Service has been unfairly barred from this market. This prohibition constrains Postal Service revenue because private shippers, such as UPS and FedEx, are exempt from such rules. The Postal Service has estimated that its shipment of alcoholic beverages would annually generate $50 million in new revenue.

H.R. 3287 and its Senate companion, S. 1663, the U.S. Postal Service Shipping Equity Act, would permit the Postal Service to carry alcoholic beverages from licensed producers and retailers to consumers over the age of 21, in accordance with state and local law. NAPS supports this legislation.

Limited Banking

Digital services, including limited banking and public-private partnerships with financial institutions that complement the Postal Service’s core products and align with the postal mission, should be encouraged and authorized by Congress.

A 2014 report by the USPS Office of Inspector General (OIG) found that the Postal Service was well-suited to provide non-bank financial payments, credit services and products to the underserved, some in partnership with the private sector. The OIG found that one in four U.S. households lives at least partially outside the financial mainstream—without bank accounts or reliant only on costly payday lenders.

The United States had a Postal Savings System from 1911 to 1967, which, in 1947, had $3.4 billion in assets (more than $35 billion in today’s dollars) or about 10 percent of the entire commercial banking system. Worldwide, 1.5 billion people receive some financial services through their postal service.

In fall 2021, the Postal Service initiated a very spartan approach to offer Americans limited financial services at four postal facilities in the country. It is unclear how these venues were selected or how the sole financial product, a restricted payroll cashcard, was promoted. NAPS encourages Congress to advance legislation to expand the authority of the Postal Service to provide basic financial services, including small-dollar loans, checking accounts, interest-bearing savings accounts and services relating to international money transfers.
Legislative Issues Brief

Bills To Co-Sponsor

The National Association of Postal Supervisors encourages sponsorship of the following bills:

House Legislation

H.R. 3077, Postal Service Improvement Act
Primary Sponsor: Rep. Carolyn Maloney (D-NY-12), introduced May 11, 2021
Contact: Ethan Van Ness, 202-225-5051, ethan.vaness@mail.house.gov

The measure would enhance the capability of the U.S. Postal Service and state election authorities to track absentee election ballots and would authorize paid parental leave for employees of the agency. Most importantly for NAPS members, the bill includes the provisions of H.R. 1623 and H.R. 1624 (see below). Also, H.R. 3077 authorizes the acquisition of an electric fleet of delivery vehicles and to maintain current service standards. H.R. 3077 was approved by the House Committee on Oversight and Reform on May 13, 2021, and awaits a floor vote.

H.R. 1623, Postal Supervisors and Managers Fairness Act
Primary Sponsors: Reps. Gerry Connolly (D-VA-11) and Mike Bost (R-IL-12), introduced March 4, 2020
Contacts: Wendy Ginsberg, 202-225-5051, wendy.ginsberg@mail.house.gov (Connolly); Noah Barger, 202-225-5661, noah.barger@mail.house.gov (Bost)

The bill provides for the timely start of pay talks between Executive and Administrative Schedule (EAS) postal employees and the Postal Service by decoupling EAS pay consultations from the protracted timeline of collective-bargaining between the largest postal union and the USPS. Under the bill, EAS pay talks would start 60 days prior to the expiration of the existing EAS “pay agreement.” In addition, the bill would establish a fair and credible process for the conduct of pay consultations by binding the USPS and the supervisors’ organization to the findings and conclusions of an independent Federal Mediation and Conciliation fact-finding panel.

H.R. 1624, Postal Employee Appeal Rights Amendments Act
Primary Sponsors: Reps. Gerald E. Connolly (D-VA-11) and David McKinley (R-WV-1), introduced Jan. 16, 2019
Contact: Wendy Ginsberg, 202-225-1492, wendy.ginsberg@mail.house.gov (Connolly); Allie Hildebrand, 202-225-4172, Allie.Hildebrand@mail.house.gov (McKinley)

The bill confers to over 5,000 non-supervisory managerial postal employees the right to appeal significant personnel actions to the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB). Non-supervisory postal personnel currently may only appeal such actions through an internal USPS process that lacks impartial third-party review. Postal supervisory personnel and nearly all federal civil service employees already enjoy MSPB appeal rights.

H.R. 5587, Postal Police Reform Act
Primary Sponsors: Reps. Andrew Garbarino (R-NY-2) and Bill Pascrell (D-NJ-9), introduced Oct. 15, 2021
Contact: Scott Rausch, 202-225-7896, scott.rausch@mail.house.gov

The bill would reverse a 2020 directive from the Chief Postal Inspector that limited the jurisdiction of the U.S. Postal Police to postal facilities. Under the directive, Postal Police are not able to investigate crimes against postal personnel and property not situated on postal-owned or leased real estate.
H.R. 82, Social Security Fairness Act
Primary Sponsor: Rep. Rodney Davis (R-IL-13), introduced Jan. 4, 2021
Contact: Nathan Canterbury, 202-225-2371, nathan.canterbury@mail.house.gov
This legislation would repeal the Government Pension Offset and Windfall Elimination Provision, sections of the Social Security law that unfairly reduce the rightful benefits of Civil Service Retirement System annuitants and surviving spouses of these annuitants.

H.R. 304, Equal COLA Act
Primary Sponsor: Rep. Gerry Connolly (D-VA-11), introduced Jan. 13, 2021
Contact: Wendy Ginsberg, 202-225-5051, wendy.ginsberg@mail.house.gov
The bill would create parity between the cost-of-living adjustment with respect to a Federal Employees System (FERS) annuity and a Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) annuity.

H.R. 2337, Public Servants Protection and Fairness Act
Contact: Elizabeth O’Hara, 202-225-5601, elizabeth.o’hara@mail.house.gov
The bill would help alleviate the impact of the Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) on certain CSRS annuitants who also are eligible for Social Security. H.R. 2337 would provide a $150 per month rebate to individuals who reach the age of 62 prior to 2023 and would alter the formula to reduce the impact of WEP for CSRS annuitants who reach the age of 62 after Jan. 1, 2023.

H. Res. 109, Resolution to Maintain Door Mail Delivery
Primary Sponsor: Rep. Stephanie Murphy (D-FL-7), introduced Feb. 5, 2021
Contact: John Laufer, 202-225-4035, john.laufer@mail.house.gov
This nonbinding resolution expresses the sense of the House of Representatives that residential and business door mail delivery should be continued.

H. Res. 47, Resolution to Oppose Privatization of the U.S. Postal Service
Contact: Bruce Fernandez, 202-225-8273, bruce.fernandez@mail.house.gov
This nonbinding resolution expresses the sense of the House of Representatives that Congress should ensure that the U.S. Postal Service is not privatized and remains an independent establishment of the federal government.

Senate Legislation

S. 1302, Social Security Fairness Act
Primary Sponsor: Sen. Sherrod Brown (D-OH), introduced April 22, 2021
Contact: Chad Bolt, 202-225-2315, chad_bolt@brown.senate.gov
This legislation is the Senate companion to H.R. 82. It would repeal the Government Pension Offset and Windfall Elimination Provision, sections of the Social Security law that unfairly reduce the rightful benefits of Civil Service Retirement System annuitants and surviving spouses of these annuitants.
Action on resolutions is a major part of the business of NAPS national conventions. But first, those resolutions must be written and acted on at NAPS state branch conventions in the coming months. Then, those resolutions a branch adopts that do not involve local issues will be forwarded to NAPS Headquarters to be included in the convention One Book.

That’s well and good, you may be thinking, but how do you write a resolution? That’s what this article is about. Let’s call it Resolutions-Writing 101.

You’ll soon discover that writing simple, effective resolutions everyone can understand is not all that difficult if you keep a few pointers in mind.

So let’s get started.

Before you begin putting your thoughts in “whereas” and “resolved” resolution form, write down—in a short sentence—the action you’re requesting. This later will form the basis of the “resolved” of your resolution. Don’t give all the reasons (“whereases”) just yet why you want the action to be taken. We’ll get to all that in a moment.

Let’s come up with a sample resolution that will request an action to be taken; in this instance, one by family members. The same basic thought process will apply to any NAPS-related resolution you may later write.

At the dinner table one evening, family members decide they need to get a dog. That “action,” in a short sentence, might read: “The Smith family needs to get a dog.”

Now, the Smith family needs to state the reasons why that action is desirable. Using the simple-sentence method, family members state all the reasons why the Smith family needs to get a dog:

“Protection against intruders”
“A loyal, loving family companion”
“A reason to get off the couch and get more exercise by walking the dog”

Well, what do you know? We’ve almost put together a simple resolution! All we have to do now is state everything in resolution format, using “whereases” and “resolveds.”

Whereas, A dog would be protection against intruders, and

Whereas, A dog would be a loyal, loving family companion, and

Whereas, A dog would be a reason to get off the couch and get more exercise walking, now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Smith family needs to get a dog.

Remember, a resolution may have one “whereas” or several. Likewise, it may have one or several “resolveds.” In our sample resolution, the “resolved” could have read:

Resolved, That the Smith family needs to get a dog.

Recall, a resolution may have one “whereas” or several. Likewise, it may have one or several “resolveds.” In our sample resolution, the “resolved” could have read:

Resolved, That the Smith family needs to get a dog and be it further

Resolved, That the dog be obtained from a shelter, and be it finally

Resolved, That the dog be housebroken.

Other resolution-writing pointers to keep in mind are:

• Resolutions should always request a certain action, never demand or threaten it.

• A “resolved” (or “resolv-eds”) should be a complete, stand-alone statement that clearly and completely states the issue. For example, “The Smith family needs to get a dog.” Don’t say, “Because of all these reasons, it’s important to do this.” The reader shouldn’t have to reread an entire resolution to know what “this” is.

• Avoid using complex “resolveds” that request unrelated actions. Our sample resolution shouldn’t read: “Resolved, That the Smith family needs to get a dog and have

A Note About Submitting Convention Resolutions

All resolutions, in a Microsoft Word document, must be emailed to Executive Vice President Chuck Mulidore, naps.cm@naps.org. Receipt of the resolutions will be acknowledged by return email. If you have any questions, contact Chuck by email or phone, (703) 836-9660. If you do not receive an acknowledgement, you can assume your resolutions were not received; please contact Chuck.

All resolutions from states with conventions ending on or before May 30, 2022, must be received by NAPS Headquarters by May 31.

The deadline for all other resolutions to be received by NAPS Headquarters is July 10. Resolutions received at NAPS Headquarters after this deadline will not be printed in the convention One Book—no exceptions!

Resolutions not received by the July 10 deadline, including any offered from the convention floor, will need to be submitted to Executive Vice President Chuck Mulidore at the convention for referral to the Resolutions Committee for consideration and assignment of a number.

After assignment of a resolution number—not before—the submitting branch then will need to arrange for 1,200 copies of each resolution to be made at branch expense. The NAPS Convention Office may not be used to photocopy resolutions.

• Resolutions should request actions over which the named persons, groups or organizations have control. The Smith family has the ability to get a dog, so a resolution requesting that is in order. However, a “resolved” that reads, “The Smith family needs to make sure everyone on its block gets a dog,” would be inappropriate because the Smith family has no control over that request.

• Don’t use fancy words when simple ones will do (say “use,” instead of “utilize,” for example). And don’t use long, complex or run-on sentences. The beauty of “whereases” is they encourage a listing of simple reasons why an action should be taken. Break up those long sentences into several shorter “whereases.”

• Spell out the first reference to any program or initiative, especially postal ones, that might not readily be known to the reader. For example, some newer postal employees may not know that WSCs are work service credits (as opposed to the more familiar SWCs—supervisory workload credits).

If the reader doesn’t instantly know what you’re talking about, you could lose support for your resolution. It’s perfectly okay to refer to an acronym, such as WSCs, in second and subsequent references.

Here’s to writing simple, more effective resolutions for consideration at our 68th National Convention, Aug. 4-13, at the Hyatt Regency New Orleans.

In the late 1950s, Robert Trent Jones Sr. laid out over 7,100 yards of golf. In 1959, the course was completed and play began at Timberlane. Over the past several years, the course has matured; the oaks planted as small seedlings along the fairways now clearly define the layout and offer spectacular holes.

The course has four sets of tee areas, 17 water hazards and 80 sand bunkers in play on the course. For those not familiar with the course, you may find it friendly, while challenging at the same time. Timberlane is New Orleans’ golf destination. The course is approximately 10 minutes from the Hyatt Regency New Orleans.

Before play, golfers can warm up on the spacious, all-grass, lighted practice range or hone their chipping, pitching and sand play directly onto the large practice and putting green. All fairways have bermudagrass; greens are covered with TifEagle, a very fine-textured dwarf bermudagrass.

The NAPS tournament will tee off at 9 a.m. on Sunday, Aug. 7. The fee is $110 before the registration deadline of July 15; non-golfer fee is $39.95. The fee includes breakfast, lunch, snacks, drinks and transportation. From July 16 to Aug. 1, the fee is $130.

For more information, contact Golf Tournament Committee Co-Chairs Bertha Brumfield (504) 388-5462 or Michael Mayes (504) 915-3470.

At the convention, all branches will be given the point totals of their entries by category, along with any comments the judge may make.

The Atlantic hurricane season runs from June 1 to Nov. 30, with mid-August through mid-October traditionally the strongest time for hurricane activity. The 2021 hurricane season was the third most-active on record. Forecasters already are predicting 2022 to be a busy year for storms, potentially with four to six hurricanes having a direct impact on the United States. And the intensity of storms is increasing.

Residents living in hurricane-prone areas always should be prepared for a storm. And Postal Service employees nationwide can help by contributing to the Postal Employees’ Relief Fund. The fund was created to help postal employees—active or retired—whose homes have been destroyed or significantly damaged by natural disasters.

Please make a donation to PERF to help your postal brothers and sisters in their desperate times of need.

Working with employees facing deployment can be a challenge. As a leader, you set the tone, which means you can help the process go smoothly for everyone. Open communication, planning and preparation will go a long way to helping everyone navigate the impact of deployment on the work environment.

Before Deployment

If you have employees in the Reserve or National Guard, be aware they likely will face deployment at some point. Employees may not always get much notice when they are going to be deployed. Therefore, it is important to have conversations with them ahead of time to set expectations.

It is crucial that you are familiar with the tasks for which your employee is responsible so you can ensure others are trained and prepared to fill that role during a deployment. Creating a plan of action ahead of time will help the employee and co-workers feel better prepared when the time comes. Ask your employee how you can support them and indicate how you would prefer to be notified about a potential deployment.

During Deployment

As much as possible, try to keep your deployed employee informed and up to date with what is happening at work. Reach out periodically by email to see how they are doing. With the employee’s permission, share how they are doing with co-workers.

Include co-workers in any efforts to support the employee (letters, care packages). And show appreciation and gratitude for co-workers who are picking up the deployed employee’s tasks and responsibilities.

Returning to Work after Deployment

If possible, try to meet with your deployed employee before they return to work. Let them know of any policy or procedure changes that may have occurred while they were gone. Ask the employee what they need or what would be helpful for them in their return to work. Talk with your employee about how they would like to handle their deployment—are they comfortable talking to co-workers or would they prefer not to discuss it?

Discuss if a flexible work arrangement or gradual return to duty would be helpful. Encourage your employee to practice good self-care, emphasizing healthy habits, spending time with family and friends and addressing health concerns. Be patient as the transition back to work can take time.

The employee returning from deployment may notice changes in themselves, their co-workers and the work environment. Other issues they may experience include:

- The pace of work may be much slower than what they experienced during their deployment.

- Chronic fatigue is very common. Deployed employees returning to work still may be processing stress and need more rest than usual.
- Cynicism and dissatisfaction with routine work also are common. Sometimes, deployed employees see their daily work as lacking meaning and satisfaction after what they experienced during their deployment.
- Emotions are easily evoked. Deployment typically involves intense experiences, stress and fatigue; returning home may cause a wide range of emotions. People may experience dramatic mood swings, cry or easily become angry and can be more sensitive to hurtful and upsetting comments.
- Difficulties with co-workers and managers also can be an issue.

Signs for Which to Watch

It can be difficult to know whether the returning military member is experiencing a normal stress reaction or really struggling. If your employee consistently displays any of the following signs, encourage them to seek professional help. The employee:

- seems disoriented
- struggles to recall simple things or recent events
- is not taking good care of themselves, including basic hygiene, eating healthy and getting enough sleep
- suffers from anxiety
- struggles with depression or withdraws from others
- exhibits signs of hopelessness
- shares suicidal or homicidal thoughts or plans
- uses drugs or alcohol excessively
- is experiencing psychiatric issues such as hearing voices or hallucinations
- is involved in domestic violence, child or elder abuse

Robert “Bobby” Bock

I have been representing NAPS members for over 30 years. I am in communication with my branch members, as well as Florida State Branch members, on a daily basis. To a person, the members I speak with all have something in common: They believe they are working in a toxic environment.

As a representative for this organization, I try to be a problem-solver. While anyone can complain about a problem, there only are a small number of people who seek solutions. We need to have more problem-solvers working to resolve issues and conflict.

This is where there needs to be collaboration between USPS leadership and NAPS. Without collaboration, there cannot be any solutions to either operational or relationship problems and, as a result, we cannot provide a high level of service to our customers.

When NAPS raises issues concerning a toxic work environment, postal leaders must react quickly and positively to investigate and take the necessary action to correct the situation. As NAPS officers, we need to collaborate with postal leaders to improve the work environment or correct operational issues.

We also need the tools to do our jobs. Adequate staffing for Operations would make things run more smoothly and efficient-ly. We would be paying straight time instead of overtime and penalty overtime and the mail would be delivered before dark. I know we have many problems with which to deal, but we are on the same team. We all can win if we work together.

I remember many of the initiatives used by the Postal Service over the years; some were good and others died on the vine. We used to look at a problem as if we were trying to “eat an elephant.” We had support staff work on the floor on Fridays so we could eliminate the use of excessive 204-Bs.

We saved money, had more employees doing their craft jobs and support staff learned new skills and had a better appreciation for what Operations was doing. I believe we can improve the environment if there’s a renewed commitment from leadership to change the environment.

When NAPS presents a problem, we need to work together to come up with a solution. Postal leadership cannot ignore NAPS’ calls and emails. Instead, we should be working together to achieve mutual goals and accomplish our mission.

Together, let’s end toxic working conditions.

National Convention Reminders

Bonita Atkins
Secretary/Treasurer

Our 2022 National Convention in New Orleans is just around the corner. My state is excited to host this event in “The Big Easy.” We think it will be a huge success. Be sure to wear comfortable shoes and cool clothing. It will be very warm in August, but there is a lot to see and do.

The National Auxiliary will be conducting fundraisers that will include, but not be limited to, a 50/50 raffle and gift card tree. This is the only opportunity the Auxiliary has to raise funds for its operations. As announced at last year’s national convention in Grapevine, TX, there will be two winners for this year’s 50/50.

One-half of the 50/50 pot will be divided in half; two winners will be announced. Because this will not be a true “50/50” raffle, we are calling it a “split-the-pot” raffle. After the convention, please give Auxiliary members your feedback regarding the new raffle. Be sure to stop by the Auxiliary table early and often to support the Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary Luncheon recognizes our Auxiliary state presidents and introduces the new National Auxiliary Executive Board. It also is

How to Lead Employees Dealing with Deployment

Focus on the Team

As a leader, it is your role to create an atmosphere of respect and facilitate an employee’s return to work for the entire team. As the deployed employee returns to work, don’t forget about others. Try to create a climate of positive expectations for all employees and promote productive and supportive work relationships.

It may be a good idea to have a meeting with your team before the deployed employee returns to work so you can discuss the transition, how it may impact the team and address concerns they may have. Having a welcoming event (breakfast and treats) can go a long way toward creating a sense of community.

Make sure to give extra attention and appreciation to the team members who handled the deployed employee’s job responsibilities. Be understanding that those employees also are going through a transition as they return to their former roles.

Leading with compassion and awareness of what the deployed employee is experiencing, as well as the impact on the workforce, can help minimize negative experiences for the return to work. As a leader, make sure you are aware of your own experiences and feelings about military deployment. Try to create an atmosphere where your employees can approach you and be open about their feelings and concerns.

Encourage your employees to seek additional help and use the Employee Assistance Program for support. No matter how much preparation you do, unexpected occurrences are likely to happen. Be on the alert for tension and make time and space available to address any issues that you observe.

Try to find ways to integrate the positive experiences of the deployment into the work environment. While working with employees who face deployment can be a challenge, recognize that a veteran returning to work often brings skills of leadership, teamwork and perspective that can be valuable in the workplace.
