

May 27, 2020

Mr. Brian Wagner
President
National Association of Postal Supervisors
1727 King Street, Suite 400
Alexandria, VA 22314-2753

Dear Mr. Wagner,

Please find enclosed a copy of the new edition of USPS Publication 100, The United States Postal Service: An American History.

This new edition of Publication 100 has been updated through 2019 and contains several new chapters — including "Diversity Past and Present" and "Unusual Delivery Methods" — that shed light on the Postal Service's long, proud, and fascinating history. Other notable additions include:

- a history of U.S. postage stamps, on pages 100–109;
- tables of historical postage rates, on pages 124–127; and
- a fold-out "Chronology of Events," on the inside back cover.

A free electronic copy of Publication 100 is available at <https://about.usps.com/publications/pub100.pdf>.

Postal employees can order print versions through eBuyPlus, while USPS customers can order printed copies as described in the enclosed instructions. These instructions are also available on the Postal History Welcome page, at <https://about.usps.com/who-we-are/postal-history/welcome.htm>.

I hope you enjoy reading this publication and find it useful.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jennifer Lynch".

Jennifer Lynch
Historian and Corporate Information Services Manager

Enclosures

How to Order Printed Copies of USPS Publication 100, The United States Postal Service: An American History

USPS Employees

Postal employees can order copies of Publication 100 through the eBuyPlus ordering system. Item information is as follows:

Item Name: PUB100 PUB, HISTORY OF U.S.P.S.
Item Number: 7610030009247
UNSPSC Code: 2410210000
Price: $2.99 each

USPS Customers

U.S. residents can purchase a copy of Publication 100 by contacting the USPS Material Distribution Center at 1-800-332-0317 (option 4, option 4). Publications are provided at cost, plus the cost of shipping and handling.

HISTORIAN
UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
MAY 2020